IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF ARIZONA
United States of America,	No. 08-3095-M
Plaintiff, v.	ORDER EXTENDING TIME TO INDICT
Cesario Rosendo Hernandez-Flores,	(First Request)
Defendant.
HAVING considered Defendant Motion to Extend Time to Indict and good cause having been shown;
THE COURT makes the following findings:
1. Counsel for defend	ant has only recently been appointed;
2. The defendant earn the government;	The defendant earnestly wishes to consider the plea offer extended by the government;
3. The defendant wi considering the gov	The defendant wishes to investigate possible defenses prior to considering the government's plea offer;
4. The government's plea offer, if accepted by the defendant and then the court, would likely reduce defendant's exposure to a significant term of imprisonment;
indictment, the go	does not timely accept the plea offer prior to vernment will withdraw said plea offer and any offer after indictment would likely be less e defendant;

Failure to extend time for indictment in this instance would thus operate to bar defendant from reviewing the government's plea offer in a meaningful way prior to indictment; and 6.

7. The ends of justice served by this continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy indictment.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that defendant's Motion to Extend Time for Indictment requesting an extension of thirty (30) days within the government may seek to indict defendant, is hereby granted.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, the Government shall have an extension of thirty (30) days to file a timely Indictment. Excludable time shall begin to run on the 31st day after arrest for a period of thirty (30) days in which the Government may present the case to the grand jury.

DATED this 10th day of April, 2008.
